Palace Visit with Audio Guided Tour

The palace offers two self-guided tours of the royal rooms. Audio guides, available in English, German, and Dutch, feature stories told by various historical characters that bring the rooms and their history to life. Free tour booklets are available in French, Danish, Japanese and Simplified Chinese. Please collect your copy from the desk at the starting point of the palace routes. A rental device costs € 1.50 p.p. if registered in advance or € 2.50 p.p. on site.

Guided tours inside the palace are not possible because there is no space along the routes for groups to gather.

The two palace routes

1. William and Mary route leads the visitor through the 17th century rooms and shows the life of the first residents William III and Mary Stuart.
2. Wilhelmina's Home route gives the visitor an insight into the lives of the Dutch Royals who lived at the palace from the 18th till the 20th century.

New in 2027

From spring 2027, a brand-new section of the palace will open to visitors. Access to this new palace floor is included with every admission ticket.

A guided garden tour of 60 minutes is on request and costs € 100.00 for 1 to 15 people.
